

AllianceBernstein Intermediate Diversified Municipal Portfolio

Objective

Provide safety of principal and maximize total return after taking account of federal taxation.

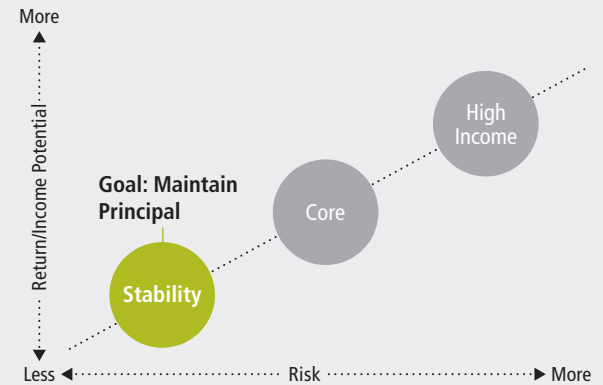

Investment Strategy

- A nationally diversified municipal bond portfolio with a focus on capital preservation and total return.
- Leverages the firm's in-depth research to build a portfolio with what we believe to be the best combination of risk and return.
- The portfolio's risk level is adjusted depending on how well investors are being compensated—we seek extra income during favorable markets, while we seek to reduce risk in times of caution.
- A consistent and repeatable investment process that combines quantitative and fundamental research to build effective bond portfolios.

Primary Investments

- At least 80% of the Fund's holdings consist of investment-grade municipal bonds and comparably rated municipal notes that generate income exempt from Federal income tax (a portion of which may be subject to the alternative minimum tax).
- Will invest no more than 25% of the Fund's net assets in municipal securities from issuers located in any single state.
- Normally seeks to maintain an effective duration of 3.5 to 7 years.

Word About Risk

Market Risk: The market values of the portfolio's holdings rise and fall from day to day, so investments may lose value.

Municipal Market Risk: Debt securities issued by state or local governments may be subject to special political, legal, economic and market factors that can have a significant effect on the portfolio's yield or value.

Interest Rate Risk: As interest rates rise, bond prices fall and vice versa—long-term securities tend to rise and fall more than short-term securities.

Credit Risk: A bond's credit rating reflects the issuer's ability to make timely payments of interest or principal—the lower the rating, the higher the risk of default. If the issuer's financial strength deteriorates, the issuer's rating may be lowered and the bond's value may decline.

Inflation Risk: Prices for goods and services tend to rise over time, which may erode the purchasing power of investments.

Derivatives Risk: Investing in derivative instruments such as options, futures, forwards or swaps can be riskier than traditional investments, and may be more volatile, especially in a down market.

Liquidity Risk: The difficulty of purchasing or selling a security at an advantageous time or price.

Diversification Risk: Portfolios that hold a smaller number of securities may be more volatile than more diversified portfolios, since gains or losses from each security will have a greater impact on the portfolio's overall value.

[‡]If applicable, this reflects the Adviser's contractual waiver of a portion of its advisory fee and/or reimbursement of a portion of the Fund's operating expenses. Absent reimbursements or waivers, performance would have been lower.

The performance shown above represents past performance and does not guarantee future results. Current performance may be lower or higher than the performance information shown. You may obtain performance information current to the most recent month-end by visiting www.alliancebernstein.com. The investment return and principal value of an investment in the Portfolio will fluctuate, so that your shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. Returns for other share classes will vary due to different charges and expenses. Performance assumes reinvestment of distributions and does not account for taxes. If applicable, high double-digit returns are highly unusual and cannot be sustained; such returns are primarily achieved during favorable market conditions.

Prior to October 1, 2009 the maximum front-end sales charge for Class A shares of the Fund was 4.25%. If the Class A annualized returns for the Fund reflected the deduction of the former maximum front-end sales charge, its returns would be lower.
