
AB TAX BULLETIN 2020

This booklet is a summary of useful tax information for various AB funds. It is intended to assist you, as an investor, in the preparation of your 2020 Federal and State tax returns. We recommend you consult your tax advisor for assistance with how this information will impact your specific tax situation.

AB Tax Forms

1099-DIV

For investors who received dividends and/or capital gain distributions in 2020, Form 1099-DIV will reflect the following:

- Box 1a Total ordinary dividends
- Box 1b Qualified dividends
- Box 2a Total capital gain distributions
- Box 2b Unrecap. Sec. 1250 gain
- Box 2d Collectibles (28%) gain
- Box 3 Nondividend distributions
- Box 4 Federal income tax withheld
- Box 5 Section 199A dividends
- Box 7 Foreign tax paid
- Box 9 Cash liquidation distributions
- Box 10 Noncash liquidation distributions
- Box 11 Exempt interest dividends
- Box 12 Specified private activity bond interest dividends
- Box 13 State
- Box 14 State identification number
- Box 15 State tax withheld

Whether reinvested in additional shares or taken in cash, mutual fund shareholders in non-retirement accounts are responsible for taxes on all income dividends and capital gains distributions.

For federal income tax purposes, the Fund's distribution of income dividends and short-term capital gains will be taxable to you as ordinary income. Distributions of long-term capital gains generally will be taxable to you as long-term capital gains at the prevailing capital gains tax rate. Market discount on tax-exempt bonds and swap gains are taxable as ordinary income.

Under current tax legislation, distributions from a mutual fund may be treated as "qualified dividend income" (QDI), generally taxable to individuals at the reduced maximum rate of 20%, provided that the Fund satisfies certain holding period and other requirements. In addition, an individual must meet certain holding period requirements with respect to the shares of the Fund in order to take advantage of the reduced maximum 20% qualified dividend income tax rate. QDI does not generally apply to fixed income funds.

Non-Taxable Distributions

For certain Funds, a portion of the dividends paid during the 2020 calendar year may have been designated as a nondividend distribution. These nondividend distributions are reflected in Box 3 of your 2020 Form 1099-DIV or substitute Form 1099.

In addition, the AB website has a "Tax Center" location where you may view current and historical reporting of Funds that had nondividend distributions and other Fund corporate actions that may affect a shareholder's cost basis.

Municipal Bond Funds

Market discount on tax-exempt bonds, as well as swap gains, are recognized as taxable income to shareholders. Taxable distributions will be reflected in Box 1a and/or 2a of your 2020 Form 1099-DIV or substitute Form 1099. Exempt-interest dividends and dividends subject to alternative minimum tax are reported in boxes 10 and 11, respectively, on Form 1099-DIV.

Additional Information

Some states and local municipalities allow taxpayers to exclude from their gross income calculation interest income dividends (but not capital gains distributions) derived from certain Federal obligations.

Included in this booklet is a schedule displaying the sources of the respective Fund's income dividends, which may be of use to you depending on the tax law prescribed within your individual state or local taxing authority. The appropriate percentages should be applied to the dividends received by you.

FOREIGN TAXES

The Funds listed below have qualified to "pass-through" their foreign taxes. Accordingly, the information below reflects the amount of foreign taxes that each Fund is passing through to their shareholders. You may choose to deduct your portion of the taxes in computing your taxable income. Alternatively, it may be beneficial for you to forgo the deduction and to take a credit against your tax liability. These deductions or credits may be subject to limitations under the tax law. Please consult your tax advisor regarding the appropriate treatment of foreign taxes paid.
